

PCPS Happenings

PPS / PES

PPS welcomes their new SRO: Officer Pete Restituto. Officer Curry, who was previously with both PES and PPS is now supporting PES only while Officer Restituto is supporting PPS. Thank you to both!

PPS students in Ms. Shepard's class entered a Frosty in the Kiwanis Annual Frosty Festival. It represented each disability within the class: autism, CHARGE syndrome, Cerebral Palsy, and Childhood Leukemia. It even had glasses, a g-tube, and cochlear implants!

PPS and PES students really showed their holiday spirit the week before break. They donned Ugly Sweaters, dressed up as holiday characters, and even enjoyed PJ Day!

5th grade students learn about electricity and get to experiment in their STEM lab!

PES Classrooms continue to earn Bull Bucks for upholding the 3 R's and are doing a great job!

PMS / PHS

PMS Band traveled to PES and PPS to share some holiday music and inspire younger students to pick up an instrument! Both PMS Band and Chorus shared music throughout the community at various concerts and events. We have such wonderful talent!

PMS held their annual Spelling Bee. Congrats to the winner, Skyler Duckworth, who will go on to represent PCPS at the WHRO Regional Spelling Bee!

PMS Golden Bull Students of the Month for December are Uriel Aaronson, Eric Page, and Taylor Keeton!

PHS Chick-Fil-A Leadership Academy visited Dominion Village to visit with residents and play Bingo to spread some holiday cheer!

Congratulations to our students of the month for December and January! R.B. Brown and Patrick Nelson are incredible students and athletes who represent Poquoson well! Also, congrats to the One Act Team who received State Runners-Up last month!

Biology II students got to dissect sharks and continue to learn about Marine Biology.

District

Poquoson Schools welcomes two new members to the administrative team: Heather Worthen, our new Director of Student Services and Amber Brown, our new Assistant Superintendent of Instruction and Support Services!

Cookies for Troops was a HUGE success as 620 dozen cookies were donated from students and families from each building!

With the School Board's support, Mr. Tillett recommended a retention and recruiting bonus for PCPS employees to recognize the dedication of our staff while also promoting our school system. The City Council accepted the proposal and all staff received a bonus. Thank you to the City Council, Mayor, City Manager, and our School Board!
